

STOCKHOLM

CALLING

Galleri Magnus Karlsson
@Asia House
63 New Cavendish Street
London W1G 7LP

October 2–7, 2018

Galleri Magnus Karlsson moves to London this autumn!

After nearly 20 years at art fairs in Europe and the USA we are trying out new ways of presenting our artists internationally. During 2018 we have taken a pause from international art fairs to explore the possibilities with pop-up exhibitions.

We start with a group exhibition in London with all our gallery artists. During the Frieze week you will find us in the premises of Asia House, located in Marylebone just south of Regents Park.

By arranging this exhibition independently of the fair, we gain stronger artistic freedom and can make a more comprehensive presentation. This format, which literally means we are moving the gallery to London for a week, fits us better. We also believe that this more personal appeal will be appreciated as it gives our audience the opportunity to experience the art in a more intimate setting than the art fairs can provide.

The exhibition is a curated presentation of new works by all gallery artists. These more spacious rooms bring forward the width of the gallery program as well as highlight individual expressions.

We hope that you Save the date for Stockholm Calling in your calendar and we look forward to seeing you this autumn. We will return with more detailed information closer to the event.
